
MOSLEM FESTIVAL AT WOKING MOSQUE.

The Moslem festival of Eid-ul-Azha, commemorating the sacrifice offered by Abraham, was celebrated at the Woking Mosque yesterday morning. A hundred and fifty Moslems were present. The Imam offered the customary prayers in Arabic and delivered a sermon dealing with the Moslem ideal of brotherhood and equality. Those who accepted invitations to the festival included the Afghan and Estonian Ministers, Sir Thomas Arnold, Mr. Saklatvala, M.P., and Indian, Egyptian, and Iraqi cadets from the Military College, Camberley.
