Between Ourselves

The Cover

The picture on the cover is that of a part of the Black Covering which the Government of Egypt sends every year to Mecca to cover the walls of the building of the Ka'ba, the old Covering being removed just before the annual Pilgrimage to Mecca.

The decorative design on the Covering, made and embroidered entirely in Egypt, consists of some verses from the Holy Qur'an and floral patterns.

Every year an official ceremonious send-off is given to this offering by the Government of Egypt, when it charges the Leader of the Pilgrimage — Amir al-Hajj — to deliver it safely to the authorities in Sa'udi Arabia. The send-off is a festive occasion in Cairo. All Government offices and schools are closed in its honour.

The Cover

The picture on the cover is that of the façade of the small but world-renowned mosque, The Shah Jehan Mosque at Woking, England, built in 1889 C.E. Her late Highness the Ruler of Bhopal, India, gave the money for the building of this mosque to the late Dr. Henry Leitner, an Orientalist, who was sometime Registrar of the University of the Panjab, India. It was named The Shah Jehan Mosque after the name of the grandmother of the present Ruler of Bhopal by the late al-Hajj Khwaja Kamal-ud-Din who, for the first time after its erection, opened it to the public for worship. The building in Bath stone is executed in the Indo-Saracenic style.
